SECURITIES IN THE LOCAL MARKET

Following is the weekly letter on trade conditions, issued by John C.
Cutler, Jr., & Co.:

Gradual improvement is apparent now that the summer lull is over, and there is more confidence expressed in regard to the general business situation throughout the United States, and indications are considered favorable for increased activities during the fall and winter.

The crops in Utah and in Idaho are in very good shape. Garden products have been good and truckers are having an excellent season. The canning factories will be able to work steadily, as there is a large crop of tomatoes. There is a splendid fruit crop and the peaches in particular are of a very fine quality. There will be large yields of alfalfa, peas, potatoes, hay, barley, oats and wheat, while the best crop will be of bumper proportions.

Trade conditions have improved lately and the industrial situation is regarded as good. Labor is well employed and manufacturing plants are quite busy. Building operations have probably been more active lately than earlier in the season. Although profits have been less, retail and wholesale merchants report a very fair volume of business.

The banks report an active demand for money, and collections are getting better.

Price movements in local securities were irregular during the week, although the tone as a whole showed that investors were ready to purchase any good stocks and bonds on slight recessions:

MILITANTS NOW EXPERT SHOTS

London, Aug. 30.—A rifle range is the latest acquisition of the militant suffragettes. Its location is kept a close secret, but an official of the Women's Social and Political Union has admitted its existence and stated that the range was in use every day by members of the organization who are rapidly becoming expert shoots.

This week's issue of the Suffragette, the official organ of the W. S. P. U., contains an advertisement offering to teach women to shoot straight. The official who gave the information in regard to the rifle range said that the militants were preparing for the next repressive step of the government, which they fear will be the use of the recently enacted mental deficiency bill to confine the suffragette leaders in asylums, where they will not be amenable to the usual court procedures. If any of the leaders are confined under the new act, the official in question declared, the resolution not to endanger human life would be rescinded and the skill acquired at the butts would be brought into play.

Home Secretary Reginald McKenna, the best hated of the cabinet ministers because his department has been responsible for the forcible feeding of suffragettes, and the enforcement of the cat and mouse act, is living in a house almost surrounded by the homes of militant agitators. Mrs. Emily K. Marshall, whose record for acts of violence is well known, recently moved into a house adjacent to the town residence of Mr. McKenna, and ever since the home secretary has had two stalwart policemen on guard over his windows. Mrs. Marshall does not deny that this precaution is altogether useless, for she declares that the home secretary's windows are a constant temptation to her.

Mrs. Marshall is the wife of the attorney for the Women's Social and Political Union, and the possessor of a long window smashing record. She now has as neighbors two other militants, who this week leased houses within a few steps of the McKenna home, which is in Westminster, near the houses of parliament. This influx of militants into the neighborhood, hitherto almost entirely given over to the homes of cabinet ministers and members of parliament, has caused some alarm among the politicians whose opposition to woman's suffrage has brought them threats of vengeance. Mrs. Marshall has already served time for breaking windows in the homes of cabinet officers, and she was arrested a few weeks ago for assaulting a Scotland yard detective.

Mr. McKenna does not regard her as a desirable neighbor, nor does he care about her friends. She was asked for the names of her comrades who have taken the two houses so close to her own, but declined the information.
She did, however, express the fervent hope that their presence would not add to the comfort of the home secretary.

The deference of the police to a title will sometimes save a woman from arrest, even if she is a militant suffragette, and this fact was not observed by the leaders in the women's campaign than it was put to effective use.

During one of the recent battles at the London pavilion, while the suffragette detail of Scotland yard was going through its usual weekly exercise of arresting Mrs. Pankhurst, a number of her defenders were locked in a small room and placed under arrest. It happened that most of these women were subscription and advertisement solicitors for the Suffragette and on account of their services to the official organ of the W. S. P. U. it was not desirable that they should go to jail.

The leader of the solicitors was a dignified and stately looking woman, and one of her companions secured her release by making use of this fact. While the women were being charged at the police station the stately solicitor was several times addressed as "Your Grace" by her companions. When her turn came to sign the prison register the inspector in charge of the police declared that a mistake had been made and that he had no complaint to make against her.
Then a constable was detailed to escort the pseudo-duchess to a taxicab.

The suffragettes charge that stimulant reasons led to the almost immediate discharge of Lady Sybil Smith who was arrested with Mrs. Pethick Lawrence while attempting a raid on the House of Commons.

ILLNESS SOON FATAL

Eureka, Aug. 29.—Henry Bush, aged 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bush of Mammoth, died at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday morning of peritonitis after a brief illness. The young man was employed by lessees at the Mammoth mine just prior to the illness which resulted in his death. He became ill on Monday morning and that evening he had an intestinal hemorrhage. It is thought that his illness may have been caused by drinking a large quantity of ice water while in an over-heated condition.

The body was shipped to American Fork Friday and the burial took place in the City cemetery at that place this afternoon.

AUSTRIA'S ARMY NEEDS RECRUITS

Vienna, Aug. 30.—So many of the young men of Austria and Hungary have emigrated to America that the armies of the Dual Monarchy lack from eighty to one hundred thousand soldiers this year to bear arms. These men should be in the ranks, instead, they are earning their livelihood in the United States and Canada. The difficulty in getting recruits is increasing instead of diminishing, and the military authorities of both Austria and Hungary are beginning to show their consternation and even their wrath at this very serious state of affairs.

The emigration from Austria and Hungary for the first half of 1913 to the United States and Canada has been unprecedented. The situation is such that the ministers of war of the two states are today jealously supervising the introduction of new emigration laws in the parliaments of Vienna and Budapest. When the Austrian council of ministers recently presented the draft of a new bill to the minister of war, this official expressed himself as greatly displeased at the mildness of the restrictions devised for preventing Austrian youths from going abroad.

Farmers in many parts of Austria and Hungary have long complained that no labor was procurable, all the able bodied young men having emigrated. The authorities remained comparatively indifferent, until today they find that emigration is seriously affecting recruiting. Now they are deeply concerned.

At the last enrollment of recruits on June 30, the Cracow army corps reported that 20,872 young men failed to answer the military summons, having left the country. The Przemyel corps was 26,112 short, the Lemberg corps 33,850. In all the crown lands large numbers of men liable to military service had disappeared. It was estimated that 81,000 had gone from Galicia and Bukovina alone.

Such a condition of affairs is especially serious at the present time when, owing to changes in the strategical conditions of the Balkan countries, the recruiting levy of Austria-Hungary is about to be increased by 40,000 men. The emigration to Canada is particularly displeasing to the war ministry, as few of these emigrants ever return. Over 90,000 men liable for army service are now in Canada and not one responded to the summons recently sent out to join the army.

MUST SUPPORT WIFE

Salt Lake, Aug. 30.—John Platt, who was charged with neglect of his wife and five minor children, was arraigned yesterday before Justice of the Peace Harry S. Harper. He entered a plea of not guilty and his hearing was continued without date.
He was released on his own recognizance on his promising to return to his work at Garfield and to send to his wife $7 a week.
